12. The McLeod County Agricultural Association will use diligence to protect livestock and articles entered for exhibit after their arrival and placement, but under no circumstances will the McLeod County Agricultural Association be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage done to or caused by an animal or article on exhibition. It is the responsibility of the competitive exhibitor to obtain appropriate insurance for any damages done to or caused by an exhibit, and to indemnify and hold the Agricultural Association harmless against any claim arising out of incidence involving the exhibit.
13. Members of the awarding committee shall not consult on the merits of animals or articles they are judging.
14. Any persons attempting to interfere with the awarding committee during the adjudication shall forfeit any premium he or she may otherwise be entitled to in the division.
15. No animal to article shall compete for more than one premium except as a part of a collection, herd, or sweepstake premium.
16. The Judge or committee on cattle, sheep and hogs will have regard to symmetry, early maturity, size and general characteristics if the breed to which they belong. They will make proper allowances for age, feeding and other circumstances affecting character and condition of the animals, and may require satisfactory proof of facts.
17. Judges or committees (especially those on animals) shall give reason for their decisions in writing if required by the exhibitor, embracing the value of the desirable qualities of the animal or articles to which the premiums are awarded
18. All protests and appeals of the decision of an awarding committee or judges must be made in writing to the secretary before the close of the fair.
19. Certificates of Registry of horses and cattle in registered classes shall be presented to the Superintendent of the Department to entitle the animals to premiums.
20. No awarding committee shall award any discretionary premium. When articles if superior merit, for which no premiums have been offered are exhibited, the awarding committee may enter the same as "Commended" on the book awards so that the secretary may report the same to the board for future action.
21. Special premiums may be offered by interested persons for entries which conform to the general classification of the association.
22. Superintendents of all departments have the right to accept or reject any exhibit. In the event of a dispute the Agricultural Association Executive Board shall make the ruling.
23. All Livestock and poultry exhibited at the McLeod County Fair must conform to the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health in that:
    a) Livestock or poultry known by the exhibitor to have an infectious, communicable disease to have been exposed to an infectious, communicable disease, or to be from a quarantined herd or flock may not be entered in an exhibition, Warts and Ringworm are considered a communicable disease.

b) All Livestock will be inspected by the Official Veterinarian on the opening day of the exhibition.
